Blazin' The Trail Day

August 2, 2014

Garage Sales, Antiques,
Crafts, Produce Markets,
Wines, and Festivities

From Lexington through
Dover to Waverly!

From the 1820's goods were hauled on wagons down the Old Santa Fe Trail through rugged timber. Today folks travel the same route, now highway 24 at the northern edge of Lafayette County, Missouri to stop at farms, greenhouses, roadside markets, and vineyards. In 1933 this historic highway was built to replace mud roads like the Santa Fe Trail. Roadside stands sprang up at every farm and orchard. It's been like that ever since.

The 7th Annual Blazin' the Trail Event is a 20 mile event along the Santa Fe Trail spanning from Lexington to Waverly, Missouri. Along the way, you will find Produce, Garage sales, Antiques, Crafts, Food, Wine (from local wineries), and other Family Events and Shows. At the Heart of the trail lies the small town of Dover celebrating their Dover Days Festival.
